International Examinations

Answer either Question 1 or Question 2.

EITHER

1 Read carefully the poem on the opposite page.

How does the poet convey to you a vivid impression of how she intends to live when she is old?

To help you answer this question, you might consider:

- how she describes herself
- the things she intends to say and do as an old woman
- how the final seven lines help you to understand her feelings.

I'll Be a Wicked Old Woman

³ boogie: dance

⁴ smarties: fashionable young people ⁵ furze ... heather ... thistle: tough and prickly plants

OR

2 Read carefully the following passage.

Anna has waited behind after school before setting off to walk home, hoping that the other children will no longer be around to bully her. She lives in a village and her road home is through bleak countryside.

How does the writing develop your interest in Anna's thoughts and feelings?

To help you answer this question, you might consider:

- how the writer describes Anna's surroundings
- how she portrays the ways the boys behave towards Anna
- how suspense is built up in the passage.

Anna runs up the road. Only another half-mile to home. The ponies in their winter coats look at her over their hay, as if they know something about her.
